APRIL is Child Abuse Awareness Month

~ Wear a blue ribbon! ~

Hope everyone had a beautiful and blessed Easter. Thanks to all of you who took the time to visit a shelter and a library LOR did and I hope this will give you an idea of where the children reside and how we help so many places like this one. Also, I am sure you know now why I feel there is such a great need for a "home" for girls that will never be adopted.

If you have not toured our Children's Closet lately – please come and see the new changes and additions. Also, we want you to come say hello to "Lori" our new delivery truck and you will appreciate her looks. Every girl should be so pretty and have eyelashes like her. I want to personally thank Marcie and Steve Jacobs of Marathon Dealerships for giving us a good deal on our truck and to Susi and Sonny Lee for their contribution on paying for the truck to be painted in her finest and to Elizabeth Hazard for her contribution to help pay for the truck. Wow, you folks are SUPER!!!! Hope all of you will come out on Saturday and bring your family to our different locations throughout April and May and see us and give LORI a pat and a dollar at our Bucks for the Truck campaign. We were at Lowes in Mt. Pleasant on Saturday, April 12, and will be filling up the truck at the Super Wal-Mart at Oakland Plantation on Saturday, April 26 – stop by and meet "LORI"!

Keep your prayers coming for the children of the Lowcountry.

SPECIAL THANKS!
